

Dear Public Servants,

I want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interest. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation.

On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. The very foundation of democracy is based upon a free, and uncensored public forum. The airwaves belong to the public and not the wealthy private interests which are the main beneficiaries of this proposed legislation.

The potential consequences of this media legislation are indeed catastrophic to our nation's unity. It is nothing less than an assault on the cherished american ideal of FREEDOM OF SPEECH.

This outrageous legislation is monopolistic in practice and anathema to the belief in the free market which our forefathers predicated our democratic republic.

Do not vote to consolodate media interests.

I think it would be very selfish. I would be hard to sleep at night knowing that you put your own self interest above the majority of the people. I know you like the nice trips the media companies fiance for you, but what about self integrity. Your going to have to live with this for the rest of your lives if you are wrong.

Sincerely,

Tim Jenson
